

Darcy Day is my gorgeous 17-year-old son. How lucky am I to get to share such an experience with my son !

We had so many photoshoots interrupted, cancelled, scaled down, re organised, re located, and generally messed with due to covid. So, when I asked my son if he could please come & help me out, due to yet ANOTHER covid-induced cancellation, he said “sure mum”.

Darcy is a beautiful pianist, composer, singer, performer & songwriter. So, he was actually an inspired, if accidental, choice for a collection that’s all about the awesome androgenous rock stars of the 70’s. In many of the shots he is playing our fav 70’s songs – I raised my boys right; you know, listening to ‘proper music’.

He has such a gentle, insightful, loving approach to everything he does - & life in general. I won’t embarrass him by saying any more .... He’s brilliant ! He’s completely brilliant !
